

● FOR LANDLORDS

Let with confidence. Your rent is guaranteed.

When a tenant is referred through opndoor, your rent is backed by a Deed of Guarantee in your favour. The tenancy proceeds, and you are protected if the rent is not paid.

● WHAT YOU GET

opndoor acts as guarantor on your tenancy

Through a Deed of Guarantee in your favour, opndoor stands behind the rent. It is a professional guarantor service, giving you a clear, written guarantee to rely on rather than a deposit and a hope.

Up to 12 months' rent covered

You are covered for up to twelve months of unpaid rent, capped at £120,000, plus £10,000 of legal costs. Real protection if things go wrong.

Simple to claim

You can claim under the deed directly, or your agent can claim on your behalf. Either way the route is clear and the cover is in writing.

It costs you nothing

There is no charge to you as the landlord. The tenant pays the fee for the guarantee. You get the protection at no cost.

The let goes ahead

A tenancy that might otherwise have fallen through proceeds, with a tenant whose rent is now backed by a guarantee in your favour.

● THE PROTECTION

12

Months of unpaid rent covered under the deed

£120k

Cap on the rent covered, in your favour

£10k

Legal costs covered, on top of the rent

● HOW A CLAIM WORKS

Clear and straightforward

1. Notify opndoor within two weeks of the second month of arrears.
2. Make your claim to opndoor directly, or your agent can do it for you.
3. Payments begin one month after eviction proceedings start, and continue from there.

Optional extra layer: with the opndoor guarantee in place, the tenancy is also eligible for rent guarantee cover, should you want a further layer of protection.

Let with confidence

Accept an opndoor-guaranteed tenant and let your property with your rent backed by a Deed of Guarantee in your favour.

Speak to your letting agent about an opndoor-guaranteed tenancy.

Ask your agent →