

● FOR TENANTS

Didn't pass referencing? There's still a way to get the home.

● WHAT IT IS

opndoor acts as guarantor for your tenancy

A guarantor promises the landlord the rent will be covered. If you don't have one, opndoor can act as guarantor for you, so the tenancy you applied for can go ahead.

A one-off fee of one month's rent

You pay this once to set up the guarantee. There's nothing more to pay after that.

You get a copy of the deed

Once the guarantee is issued, you receive a copy of the Deed of Guarantee for your records.

● BEING STRAIGHT WITH YOU

What the fee is, and what it isn't

- | | |
|---|--|
| ✗ It is not rent , and not rent paid in advance. | ✗ It is not a deposit , and doesn't come off your rent. |
| ✓ It is a one-off guarantor fee for opndoor acting as guarantor. | ✓ It is what makes the tenancy possible when you can't provide your own guarantor. |

One important thing: the guarantee protects the landlord, not you. You still pay your rent as normal. What it does for you is open the door to a home you'd otherwise miss out on.

● GOOD TO KNOW

Full refund if it falls through

If the tenancy doesn't go ahead, you get a full refund of the fee.

Simple and quick

Setting it up is fast. You'll get a secure link, and the guarantee can be issued quickly.

Take your time, then decide

If this feels like the right way forward, your letting agent can talk you through the next step. Take the time you need and ask anything you're unsure about.

Any questions? Speak to your letting agent, who can explain how it works for your tenancy.
